

Auditoria.AI® AI-Enabled Agents to Supercharge Finance Operations

KPMG, one of the world's leading professional services firms, and Auditoria.AI have entered into a strategic partnership to accelerate finance digital transformation by leveraging artificial intelligence, machine learning, and in-depth expertise. With this alliance, Auditoria and KPMG optimize ERPs and related data systems, driving the AI evolution for application-managed services for ERPs. With Auditoria's AI-for-AP and AI-for-AR SaaS capabilities, KPMG's procure-to-pay campaigns empower finance teams to work better, faster, and more accurately.

Auditoria.AI + KPMG

KPMG Ventures Company

KPMG Ventures is a strategic investor in Auditoria.AI, recognizing the company as a best-of-breed leader in Agentic AI and Natural Language Technologies-driven automation. This partnership highlights Auditoria's innovation in enterprise automation and KPMG's commitment to supporting cutting-edge solutions.

With this collaboration, Auditoria drives in-depth insights and expertise through KPMG's extensive experience, market insights, and global presence in the enterprise technology space.

KPMG-Led Implementation Resource

KPMG provides end-to-end implementation services for all Auditoria.AI solutions. Leveraging a team of certified Auditoria.AI consultants, KPMG ensures seamless integration—whether as part of new engagements or embedded into existing project scopes.

Reseller Agreement to Deliver Auditoria.AI solutions

Auditoria.AI has a strategic resell agreement with KPMG that is a first-of-its-kind ability to procure the full suite of Auditoria's solutions directly through KPMG. The collaboration enables the finance function at enterprise organizations to procure AI-driven financial automation solutions directly through KPMG.

This expanded partnership strengthens Auditoria.AI's global reach and makes it easier for enterprises—especially those in regulated industries with data residency requirements—to adopt advanced automation with the expert support of KPMG professional services.
